GRADUATE MATRICULATION INFORMATION

We look forward to welcoming you to Queens’ this year. In order to ensure that you are prepared for the matriculation events please read the following information carefully and send your email response to the Matriculation Dinner invitation as soon as possible.

If, for any reason, you have decided not to take up your place at Queens' College could you please let us know as soon as possible by sending an email to: graduate.office@queens.cam.ac.uk

The MCR Committee will also contact you to keep you informed about all the events taking place at the start of term.

Signing of the Matriculation Register and College Matriculation Book in the President’s Lodge will take place on Friday 29 September at 14:15 pm.

(N.B. students who have already attended a Cambridge University college are not required to sign the Register again, but are invited to sign the College Matriculation book). Further details regarding Graduate Registration will be emailed to you in due course.

The Matriculation Photograph will be taken on Sunday 1 October – the time and venue are shown below:

INDIVIDUAL PORTRAIT PHOTOGRAPH
Lafayette Photography is offering an on-site portrait service for individuals, between 11:00-13:00, on the Erasmus Lawn. Further information on booking an appointment time will be circulated in due course.

CHAPEL SERVICE 17:45
There will be a service in the Queens’ Chapel at 17:45 for those who wish to attend.

MATRICULATION DRINKS (18:45) AND DINNER (19:30)
The President and Fellows of Queens’ College request the pleasure of your company at the Matriculation Dinner in the Cripps Hall. This is a formal occasion and the following points are for your information:
The Graduate Office must receive an email reply to this invitation by 10:00 by Tuesday 19 September (at the latest) when the seating plan will be finalised. Failure to reply by this date will unfortunately result in you being unable to attend.

Pre-dinner drinks hosted by the President and Fellows, together with the JCR & MCR Presidents will be served at 18:45 in the Fitzpatrick Hall. Dress is lounge suit or female equivalent and gown.

The Matriculation Dinner will be held in the Cripps Hall.

All drinks at the Dinner are provided by the College. Students do not bring their own.

Please do not get up from the table or move around the Hall until the Dinner is over and the President has left.

Please note that this event is intended for newly commencing graduate students only (who hold a confirmed place). If you have already completed a graduate course at Queens’ College then unfortunately you are not eligible to attend. Guests are not permitted.

Please supply the following information to the Graduate Office (graduate.office@queens.cam.ac.uk) as soon as possible and by 10:00 on 19 September 2017 at the latest. Please reply by email and ensure that the subject line of your message reads ‘Matriculation Dinner reply’:

1. Will you be attending the Matriculation Dinner (yes or no)?

2. Your surname/family name

3. Your forename

4. Your degree and subject (i.e. M.Phil in English, PGCE, MBA, PhD in Economics etc)

5. Do you have any dietary requirements (i.e., vegetarian, allergies etc)?
   If yes, please give specific details of your requirements

Please note that failure to reply by the stated deadline means that you will be unable to attend the dinner. Late replies will not be accepted under any circumstances.
