

STATUTES
OF
QUEENS' COLLEGE,
CAMBRIDGE
1882
AS ALTERED
1891, 1893, 1897

CONTENTS.

	PAGE
1. Of the Constitution of the College	5
2. Of the Visitor	6
3. Of College Meetings	6
4. Of the Powers of the Governing Body	7
5. Of the Election of the President	8
6. Of the Residence of the President	11
7. Of the Duty and Authority of the President	11
8. Of the Vice-President	12
9. Of the Removal of the President	12
10. Of the Qualifications and Election of the Fellows	14
11. Of the Election of Eminent Men as Fellows	17
12. Of Supernumerary Fellows	18
13. Of Honorary Fellows	18
14. Of the Proceeding to Degrees by Fellows and of the Vacation of Fellowships	19
15. Of the Residence of College Officers	22
16. Of the Removal of Fellows	23
17. Of the Scholars	24
18. Of the Stipends of the President and Fellows, and of the Scholarship, Education, and Building Funds, &c.	25
19. Of the publication of Accounts	28
20. Of Contribution to the University	29

	PAGE
21. Of the Bursars, Dean, Steward, Prælector, and Librarian	29
22. Of the Tutors and Lecturers	31
23. Of Tuition Fees and the Caution Fund	31
24. Of the Discipline of the College	32
25. Of the Common Seal	32
26. Of the Property of the College	33
27. Of Divine Service and Religious Instruction	33
28. Of the Sale of Advowsons	34
29. Of the Commemoration of Benefactors	35
30. Of Change in the Value of Money	36
31. Of the Interpretation of the Statutes	36
32. Of Appeals to the Visitor	36
33. Of the Preservation of Existing Interests	36
34. Of the Repeal of former Statutes	37
Schedule. Form of Accounts	38

IN nomine Summæ et individuæ Trinitatis, Patris Filii et Spiritus Sancti, et in memoriam Sanctorum Margaretæ et Bernardi, in quorum nominibus Collegium hoc dedicatur, idem Collegium Collegium Reginale perpetuis temporibus futuris nuncupetur.

WE, the University of Cambridge Commissioners appointed for the purposes of the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act, 1877, by virtue of the said Act and subject and according to the provisions thereof do make the following Statutes for Queens' College in the University of Cambridge, and do declare them to be Statutes wholly for the said College within the meaning of section 30 of the said Act.

I. Of the Constitution of the College.

Subject to the provisions herein-after contained, the members on the Foundation of the College shall be a 1893 President, eleven Fellows, and twenty-one Scholars. 1891

The President and Foundation Fellows for the time being shall be the Governing Body of the College.

Save as herein-after provided, the powers of the Governing Body shall not be exercised except by a majority of the whole Governing Body. It is not necessary that the President shall form one of such majority, or that the whole of the Governing Body shall be present when such powers are exercised.

The Governing Body may from time to time increase the number of Foundation Fellowships or Scholarships, and may also from time to time abolish any Foundation Fellowship or Scholarship hereafter created.

The Governing Body shall make provision for the admission of persons not on the Foundation to become members of the College.

2. Of the Visitor.

The Visitor shall be the Crown, acting through the Lord Chancellor of Great Britain for the time being.

3. Of College Meetings.

There shall be three meetings of the Governing Body, herein-after called General College Meetings, in each year. The Governing Body may fix from time to time the days for such meetings, provided that the interval between any two consecutive General College Meetings do not exceed six calendar months.

The President may call a Special College Meeting whenever he shall think fit, and shall do so upon the requisition in writing of any three Fellows within four days after the receipt of such requisition.

It shall be the duty of every member of the Governing Body to attend the General College Meetings; and if any member shall be absent from a General College Meeting he shall for each absence be fined a sum of five pounds, or such larger sum as shall be fixed from time to time by the Governing Body; and such fine shall be applied to such purposes as the Governing Body shall from time to time direct.

The President, or in his absence the Vice-President, shall preside at all College meetings. If neither the President nor the Vice-President be present at the meeting, the Senior Fellow present shall preside.

4. Of the Powers of the Governing Body.

The Governing Body shall have the administration of all the property and income of the College.

The Governing Body may from time to time make orders for the good government of the College, and for maintaining and improving the discipline and studies of the students thereof, provided that such orders be not inconsistent with any of the provisions of these Statutes.

The Governing Body may from time to time define the nature of the orders which may be made at a Special College Meeting at which there is not present a majority of the Governing Body, and may fix the quorum necessary for the transaction of business at such meeting.

The Governing Body may from time to time make orders respecting the notices to be given of College meetings.

All orders made at College meetings, herein-after called College Orders, shall be entered in a book kept for the purpose, and shall be signed by the members of the Governing Body making the same.

The College Orders made at a General or Special College Meeting shall be read over at the General College Meeting next following.

The Governing Body may from time to time alter or repeal any College Order ; but a College Order made at a General College Meeting shall not be altered or repealed at any other than a General College Meeting.

5. Of the Election of the President.

When the office of President becomes vacant the senior Fellow then in Cambridge shall, within four days after he has become aware of the vacancy, call together all the Fellows then in Cambridge. At the meeting so called he shall announce the vacancy to the Fellows assembled, and shall summon them to meet in the College Chapel for the election of a President on a day and at an hour to be fixed by the majority of the Fellows then present. Such day of election shall not be sooner than the fourteenth nor later than the thirtieth day after the announcement of the vacancy. On the same day on which he announces the vacancy he shall give notice thereof to the Fellows, by registered letters or otherwise, and shall summon them to meet in the College Chapel on the day and at the hour appointed. Whether the Fellows receive the said notice or not, the election shall be proceeded with on the day fixed as aforesaid. Provided always, that if the said senior do not become aware of the vacancy before the end of the Easter Term he shall not announce the vacancy before the first day of the following Term, unless a majority of all the Fellows determine otherwise.

On the day and at the hour fixed as aforesaid the Fellows shall assemble in the College Chapel ; Fellows then absent shall not have any voice in the election. If the Fellows assembled constitute a majority of all the then existing Fellows of the College, the senior Fellow present shall read to the assembled Fellows the following injunction :

“ Injungo vobis ut virum magis idoneum vestro judicio, omni partialitate remota, in præidentem hujus collegii eligatis, secundum Deum ; qui sit vir providus, discretus, competenter literatus, in hac academia vel in academia Oxoniensi ad minus in magistrorum artium ordinem cooptatus, in spiritualibus et temporalibus circumspectus, honestate morum præclarus, conversationis laudabilis, atque famæ redolentis, qui et melius sciverit atque poterit negotia collegii promovere.”

Then shall be said by all the Fellows present the hymn, “Veni Creator Spiritus,” and after it the Collect, “Deus qui corda fidelium,” &c. After which the three senior Fellows present shall stand in scrutiny : and then all the Fellows present, one by one, according to seniority, shall record their votes in writing, on one sheet of paper, in this form :

“ Ego N. eligo N. ad officium præidentis hujus collegii.”

When the votes have been thus recorded, one of the three senior Fellows present shall read the votes aloud, and distinctly, in the hearing of all the Fellows present. And if a majority of the whole number of the existing Fellows of the College have agreed on a Priest of the Church of England, or two-thirds of them on a person who is not a Priest of the Church of England, he shall be held elected, and the senior who has read the votes shall forthwith declare the election in this form :

“ In nomine Patris et Filii et Spiritus Sancti, ego N. socius hujus collegii, nomine meo et nomine omnium sociorum meorum, (sive majoris partis sive duarum partium eorundem,) electum pronuncio N. in præidentem hujus collegii."

If such part of the whole number of the existing Fellows as is above specified do not agree on one person, then all the Fellows present, according to seniority, shall again record their votes in the form prescribed above; and they shall do so thrice, if it seem expedient to the majority of the Fellows present. And if such part of the whole number of the existing Fellows as is above specified do not yet agree on one person, then the election shall devolve on the five senior Fellows present; and on whomsoever, being a Priest of the Church of England, the majority of these five seniors shall agree he shall be held elected. And the senior Fellow present shall declare the election in the form aforesaid.

If a majority of the whole number of the existing Fellows be not present in the College Chapel at the time fixed for the election, or if, there being such a majority present and the election having been proceeded with, no election be made within five hours from the time of meeting, the meeting shall be adjourned to the day fortnight, and on the day fortnight the election shall be proceeded with de novo in the manner enjoined above; and if no election be made on that day the appointment of a President for that vacancy shall devolve upon the Visitor.

The President-elect shall be informed of his election by the said senior, and shall present himself in the College Chapel, in the presence of two Fellows at least, on a day to be appointed by the said senior, and shall then make the following promise :

“ Do fidem quod officium præsidentis pro tempore meo fideliter geram : statuta, ordinationes, et laudabiles consuetudines hujus collegii, quantum in me est, illæsa observabo; eademque statuta fideliter exequar, vel exequi procurabo.”

When the President-elect has made this promise he shall take the seat assigned to the President in the Chapel, and the senior Fellow present, or if he have been elected the next senior Fellow present, handing to him a copy of these Statutes, shall admit him to the office of President in these words :

“ In nomine Patris et Filii et Spiritus Sancti admitto te in præsidentem hujus collegii.”

6. Of the Residence of the President.

The President shall reside in the College during two-thirds of each term. If he do not so reside he shall be fined the third part of his annual stipend for each term in which he has not so resided, unless he be absent from a reasonable cause, to be approved of by the Governing Body. Such fine shall be applied to such purposes as the Governing Body shall from time to time direct. He shall reside altogether during two hundred and ten days at least in each year, unless, with the consent of the majority of the Fellows, he shall be absent either on the business of the College or on account of illness or other grave cause. A year shall be counted for this purpose from any twenty-ninth day of September to the twenty-ninth day of September next following.

7. Of the Duty and Authority of the President.

It shall be the duty of the President to see that the Statutes of the College and the College Orders are duly observed, and he shall impartially enforce or cause to be enforced the said Statutes against transgressors of the same.

8. Of the Vice-President.

The President may appoint, in writing, under his hand and seal, the Fellow whom he shall think most fit to be Vice-President, who, in the absence or illness of the President, shall take the place of the President in all things, as long as the President shall think convenient. In the absence or illness of the Vice-President, or when his place is in any way vacant, the senior Fellow then in the College shall act in his stead.

9. Of the Removal of the President.

If at any time, on the application of any two or more of the Fellows, it shall be proved to the satisfaction of the Visitor that the President, having been a Priest of the Church of England at the time of his election, has openly seceded from the Church of England or has executed a deed of relinquishment under the Act 33 & 34 Vict. c. 91, the Visitor shall thereupon direct that the President be removed from his office, and shall declare the office of President to be vacant. And upon such direction and declaration being given and made, the office of President shall forthwith be, ipso facto, vacant.

If at any time, on the application of any two or more of the Fellows, it shall be proved to the satisfaction of the Visitor that the President has been convicted of any crime, or has been guilty of gross or habitual immorality, or of malversation in his office, or of grave neglect of his duty, the Visitor shall thereupon direct that the President be removed from his office, and shall in such case declare the office of President to be vacant, and upon such direction and declaration being given and made, the office of President shall forthwith be, ipso facto, vacant.

If at any time, on the application of any two or more of the Fellows, it shall be proved to the satisfaction of the Visitor that the President has become altogether incapable of performing the duties of his office, the Visitor shall thereupon appoint such one of the Fellows as he shall think fit to act in the place or stead of the President. And the Visitor shall assign to the Fellow so appointed such part, not exceeding one-third, of the annual stipend of the President as the Visitor shall think fit.

The Fellow who shall, in accordance with the last preceding provision, be appointed by the Visitor to act in the place or stead of the President shall be called the "Pro-President." He shall discharge the functions of the President, and shall, subject to any further or other order or direction of the Visitor, receive that part of the annual stipend of the President which shall be assigned to him, until the President shall be reinstated in his office or shall be removed therefrom; and so long as he shall hold his office he shall do all things which in these Statutes are appointed to be done by the President, save only with respect to any change in the President's emoluments, and he shall be bound by the Statutes, "Of the residence of the President" and "Of the removal of the President."

If the President shall at any time after the appointment of a Pro-President again become capable of performing his duties, the Visitor on being satisfied thereof shall have power to reinstate him in his office and functions, and in receipt of his whole emoluments.

If the President of his own accord shall wish to resign the office of President after having held it for not less than fifteen years, two-thirds in number of all the existing Fellows may, in a College meeting to be called for that purpose, accept his resignation; and may assign him a fixed portion (not exceeding two-thirds) of the annual stipend assigned to the office of President, to be paid to him yearly during his life.

10. Of the Qualifications and Election of the Fellows.

The Fellows shall be elected from among the graduate members of the College who have distinguished themselves in the examinations of the College or of the University, and whom the Governing Body, having regard to the interests of education, religion, learning, and research, shall think fit to be Fellows of the College; or, if at any time it seem expedient to the Governing Body, from among such persons, whether graduates of the University or not, as the Governing Body, having such regard, shall think so fitted.

When a Fellow of the College vacates his Fellowship the vacancy shall be announced by the President at the General College Meeting next following, and the Governing Body shall then fix a day for proceeding to a new election. The day so to be fixed shall be within six months of the announcement of the vacancy, unless the majority of the Governing Body then present, for reasons to be set forth in a College Order, defer the election for ¹⁸⁹³ a further period, not exceeding four years. The stipend of any Fellowship the election to which is thus deferred shall be applied for the purpose of increasing the Building Fund of the College, the Scholarship Fund, or the Education Fund.

On the day of election, of which the President shall advise the Fellows by registered letters or other notice sent seven days at least before the day of election, the President and Fellows shall assemble in the College Chapel. If the Fellows assembled constitute a majority of all the existing Fellows, the election shall be proceeded with in the following manner :

The President with the two senior Fellows present shall stand in scrutiny ; and first of all the President and the said seniors shall record their votes in writing ; and then all the other Fellows present, one by one, according to seniority, shall record their votes in writing in this form :

“ Ego N. eligo N. in socium hujus collegii.”

When the votes have been thus recorded, the President shall read the votes aloud, and distinctly, in the hearing of all the Fellows present. And on whomsoever a majority of the Governing Body have agreed he shall be held elected, and the President shall forthwith declare the election in this form :

“ Ego N. præsidentis hujus collegii electum pronuncio N. in socium hujus collegii.”

If, however, the votes be so divided that a majority of the Governing Body do not agree on one person, then on whomsoever half the Governing Body, including the President, agree he shall be held elected. And if half the Governing Body, including the President, do not agree on one person, then the President and each of the Fellows present shall again record their votes, one by one, according to seniority, in the form prescribed above ; and they shall do so thrice, if it seem expedient to the majority of them. And if it happen that neither a majority of the Governing Body nor half the Governing Body including the President agree on one person, then the election shall be deferred to a day to be fixed at the next General College Meeting. On the day so fixed the election shall be proceeded with as prescribed above, and if after three scrutinies no election be made, then the election shall devolve upon the President and the four senior Fellows of those present, and on whomsoever the majority of these five shall agree he shall be held elected.

The Fellow-elect shall be presented in the College Chapel to the President and two Fellows of the College at least on a day to be appointed by the President, and shall then receive from the President a copy of the College Statutes and make the following promise :

“Do fidem, quod statuta et laudabiles consuetudines hujus collegii, quantum ad me pertinent, illæsa observabo ; et juvabo collegium in sanis consiliis et auxiliis ad quemcunque statum in futurum pervenero ; et hoc laborabo pro posse meo quamdiu socius fuero.”

When the Fellow-elect has made this promise, he shall kneel before the President, who, holding his hands between his own, shall admit him in these words :

“In nomine Patris et Filii et Spiritus Sancti admitto te in socium hujus collegii.”

The Governing Body may, in any special case in which the interests of the College so require, make it at the time of election a condition of the tenure of a Fellowship that the Fellow shall, if called upon so to do within one year from the date of his election, accept such specified College office and hold it for such time as the Governing Body shall require. On any breach of such condition the Fellowship shall become vacant unless the Fellow have acquired a right to hold his Fellowship for life.

One of the Fellowships shall be deemed to be and shall be a Professorial Fellowship, and shall be held subject to the conditions contained in the Statutes of the University for Professorial Fellowships made under the powers of the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act, 1877.

But if at any time the President of the College shall ¹⁸⁹⁷ be one of the Professors within the meaning of Statute B chapter III. of the Statutes of the University of Cambridge, the annual income arising from the said Professorial Fellowship shall be applied to increase the Scholarship Fund of the College so long as the said President shall also retain his Professorship.

II. Of the Election of Eminent Men as Fellows.

If two-thirds of the Governing Body, in a meeting called for the purpose, shall agree in electing as a Fellow of the College any person eminent in science or literature, such person so elected, whether he have been a Fellow of the College or not, shall hold his Fellowship for such time, not exceeding seven years, as shall be determined by the Governing Body at the time of his election, and on such conditions with respect to residence in College or within the precincts of the University and to the performance of duties in the College or the University as the Governing Body may at the time of election determine.

In the case of any such election a statement of the service rendered to science or literature on account of which such person is elected, and of the conditions with respect to residence and the performance of duties imposed on him by the Governing Body, shall be set forth at the time of election in a College order.

The Governing Body may by a like vote re-elect to a Fellowship a person elected under the provisions of this Statute for a further period not exceeding seven years, and so on from time to time.

12. Of Supernumerary Fellows.

Any Fellow other than the Professorial Fellow may signify to the President, in writing, his wish to become a Supernumerary Fellow. If the Governing Body consent, he shall become a Supernumerary Fellow and shall be and remain a Fellow to all intents and purposes, and hold his Fellowship for the time and in the manner provided by these Statutes, and enjoy all the benefits and advantages of the same, save and except that he shall not thenceforth be entitled to any dividend nor shall he be counted as one of the minimum number of Fellows required by these Statutes.

13. Of Honorary Fellows.

The Governing Body may elect as Honorary Fellows of the College any persons distinguished in science or literature on whom seven Fellows at least with the President, or nine at least without the President, shall agree in a meeting called for the purpose. The Governing Body may by a like vote terminate the tenure of an Honorary Fellowship. Honorary Fellows shall possess no voice nor authority in the College, nor be entitled to any emolument. With these exceptions, the Governing Body may grant them such privileges as they think fit.

14. Of the proceeding to Degrees by Fellows and of the Vacation of Fellowships.

Every Fellow who at the time of his election is a member of the University, but has not taken any Degree qualifying him to be a member of the Senate, shall proceed to some Degree so qualifying him as soon as he is of standing to take such Degree.

Fellows not so proceeding to their Degrees in due course, unless prevented by illness or other cause, to be approved of by the Governing Body, shall forfeit their Fellowships.

Every Fellow shall vacate his Fellowship at the end of six years from his election, except in the following ¹⁸⁹¹ cases :—

1. If he hold a Professorship in the University he shall hold his Fellowship so long as he holds his Professorship.

2. If he hold the Office of Public Orator in the University, he shall hold his Fellowship so long as he holds the office.

3. If he hold the office of Senior Tutor, Second Tutor, ¹⁸⁹¹ Senior Mathematical Lecturer, or Senior Classical Lecturer, or additional Lecturer in the College, he shall ¹⁸⁹¹ hold his Fellowship so long as he holds such office.

4. If he have held one or other of the offices of Senior Tutor, Second Tutor, Senior Mathematical Lec- ¹⁸⁹¹ turer, or Senior Classical Lecturer, and if his tenure of any one or more or all of such offices, whether continuous or not, shall have exceeded seven years, and be less than twenty-five years, he shall continue to hold his Fellowship after he vacates office for a period of time equal to that by which his tenure of office shall have exceeded seven years.

5. If he have held one or other of the offices of 1891 Senior Tutor, Second Tutor, Senior Mathematical Lecturer, or Senior Classical Lecturer, and if his tenure of any one or more or all of such offices, whether continuous or not, shall have exceeded twenty-five years, he shall continue to hold his Fellowship for life.

1893 6. "If the Senior Tutor, the Second Tutor, the Senior Mathematical Lecturer or the Senior Classical Lecturer shall of his own accord wish to resign his office (or offices if he hold more than one) and if his tenure of any one or more or all of such offices, whether continuous or not, shall have amounted to thirty years or upwards, two-thirds of the Governing Body may, if they think fit, assign him in addition to his Fellowship (which under paragraph 5 of this section he continues to hold for life after holding office for twenty-five years) a further sum of money not exceeding one Fellowship dividend nor less than half one Fellowship dividend in amount to be paid to him yearly so long as he continues to hold his Fellowship and no longer.

1893 "If the Senior Tutor, the Second Tutor, the Senior Mathematical Lecturer or the Senior Classical Lecturer shall have held any one or more or all of such offices whether continuously or not, for a period of thirty years or upwards, and if it shall appear to two-thirds of the Governing Body specially summoned to consider the question, that the interests of the College would be promoted by his resignation of his office (or offices, if he hold more than one) they may require him to resign after assigning to him in addition to his Fellowship (which under paragraph 5 of this section he continues to hold for life after holding office twenty-five years) a further sum of money not exceeding one Fellowship dividend nor less than half one Fellowship dividend in amount to be paid to him yearly so long as he continues to hold his Fellowship and no longer. This having been done, the office or offices aforesaid shall be ipso facto vacant.

“Two-thirds of the Governing Body shall have ¹⁸⁹³ power to suspend the election to one Fellowship, but not more, and to appropriate the annual income thereof towards providing pensions to retired College Officers as soon as any such pension be granted, provided that the moiety or other fraction of such Fellowship dividend, if there be any, which shall remain after providing one such pension shall until a second pension be granted be applied for the purpose of increasing the Building Fund, the Scholarship Fund or the Education Fund.”

7. If two-thirds of the Governing Body, in a meeting called for the purpose, agree that the Educational Staff of the College should be increased by one or more ¹⁸⁹¹ additional Lecturers, any Lecturer appointed, if a Fellow, shall continue to hold his Fellowship so long as he holds his Lectureship.

No person shall be eligible for re-election to a Fellowship, except he have been elected under Statute 11; provided that the Governing Body may elect a former Fellow to any of the offices of Senior Tutor, Second ¹⁸⁹¹ Tutor, Senior Mathematical Lecturer, Senior Classical Lecturer, or additional Lecturer, and after such election may re-elect him to a Fellowship.

No Fellow shall vacate his Fellowship in passing from one educational office to another.

If a Fellow hold more than one educational office at the same time, his tenure of Fellowship after vacation of office shall be computed as if he had held not more than one office at the time.

Notwithstanding any previous provision of these Statutes, no Fellow shall retain his Fellowship after his admission to the office of President, or to a Fellowship or Headship in any other College, or for a period longer than one year after his institution to any benefice in the gift of the College the net annual income of which, after deducting all legal charges and the pension, if any, of a previous incumbent, exceeds four hundred pounds a year, or for a period longer than one year after the net annual income of such benefice shall exceed four hundred pounds a year by reason of the cesser of the pension of a previous incumbent.

If any question shall arise as to the fact of any Fellowship having become vacant, the same shall be determined by the Governing Body, subject to an appeal to the Visitor.

15. Of the Residence of College Officers.

The following obligations shall subsist as to residence in College of College Officers, other than the President; (that is to say,) during full term at least two College Officers shall reside in College; and during that part of the long vacation in which members of the College in statu pupillari are allowed to reside, at least one College Officer or Fellow shall reside in College.

The Governing Body shall make such provision as may from time to time seem to them expedient for residence in College of College Officers during the other parts of the year.

The Governing Body shall have the power of requiring any College Officer to reside in College during full term, and during such part of the long vacation as they may think necessary for the due maintenance of discipline.

“The Governing Body shall provide for every night ¹⁸⁹³ during full term that at least two of the College Officers shall sleep in College and for every night out of full term in which any members of the College in statu pupillari are in residence, that at least one College Officer or Fellow shall sleep in College.” Provided always, that a house communicating with the College and approved by the Governing Body shall for the purposes of this section be deemed to be within the College.

The Governing Body shall make provision for the attendance of at least one College Officer or Fellow at the dinner in Hall.

For the purposes of this Statute, any Fellow may with the permission of the Governing Body act as the deputy of a College Officer.

16. Of the Removal of Fellows.

If at any time a Fellow shall have been convicted by a court of competent jurisdiction of any crime the President shall as soon as possible call a Special College Meeting. The Governing Body so assembled shall inquire into the fact of such conviction, and if it be established in the judgment of a majority of the whole Governing Body then existing, the President shall pronounce his Fellowship vacant, if the said majority think fit; on which announcement the said Fellowship shall forthwith be, ipso facto, vacant.

If at any time the President think the conduct of any Fellow disgraceful so that he considers him unfit to be a Fellow of the College, he shall as soon as possible call a Special College Meeting of all the Fellows, other than the accused. The President and Fellows so assembled shall inquire into the matter, giving the accused person an opportunity of being heard in his defence ; and if the charge be established in the judgment of the majority of the whole Governing Body, the accused person not being present at the time of voting, the President shall, if the said majority so determine, pronounce the Fellowship of the accused person vacant, on which announcement the said Fellowship shall forthwith be, ipso facto, vacant.

If at any time any two Fellows of the College charge any Fellow before the President with disgraceful conduct rendering him unfit in their judgment to be a Fellow of the College, the President shall as soon as possible call a Special College Meeting of all the Fellows, other than the accused and the Fellows preferring such charge. The President and Fellows so assembled shall inquire into the matter, and shall hear as well the accused person as his accusers ; and if the charge be established in the judgment of a majority of the whole Governing Body, the accused and the accusers not being present at the time of voting, the President shall, if the said majority so determine, pronounce the Fellowship of the accused person vacant, on which announcement the said Fellowship shall forthwith be, ipso facto, vacant.

17. Of the Scholars.

The Scholars shall be chosen from the meritorious Students of the College who have distinguished themselves in the College examinations, and from other meritorious persons who shall distinguish themselves in any examination which the Governing Body may direct. No Scholar shall enjoy the emoluments of his Scholarship after he shall be of sufficient standing to take the Degree of 1891 Bachelor of Arts. “ Provided always that Bachelors of Arts or Law or Students who are of sufficient standing to be admitted to the degree of Bachelor of Arts, if the said Bachelors or Students have specially distinguished themselves in the Tripos Examinations of the University whether they be Scholars or Pensioners of the College shall be eligible for election to Scholarships of such value as the Governing Body shall determine in each case. A Scholar so elected shall be under the same regulations respecting discipline as Undergraduate Scholars and shall be subject to such regulations respecting residence in the University of Cambridge or in any other University as the Governing Body shall determine in each case. He shall cease to enjoy the emoluments of his Scholarship upon election to a Fellowship or after the expiration of 12 calendar months from the date at which he was of sufficient standing to take the degree of Bachelor of Arts.”

No one shall be allowed to compete for a Scholarship before commencing residence in the University if his age exceed nineteen years at the time of examination. The maximum emolument of such entrance Scholarships shall be eighty pounds a year, inclusive of room rent and all allowances. The tenure of an entrance scholarship shall be for not more than two years certain.

18. Of the Stipends of the President and Fellows, and of the Scholarship, Education and Building Funds, &c.

Each Fellow shall receive for every week that he resides in College ten shillings and his commons in Hall.

All moneys which remain from the receipts of the College, arising from rents or in any other way, after the payment of all sums required by these Statutes or by the Statutes of the University, or by College Orders, or by any other lawful ordinance, shall be divided into 1893 twenty-one parts, of which four shall be paid to the President as his annual stipend, one to each Fellow, 1893 “a sum of money not exceeding two to each Fellow who has been specially pensioned on resigning office after thirty or more years’ service according to Statute XIV.” 1891 five to the Scholarship Fund, and one to the Education and Building Funds, the same to be apportioned between these two funds as the Governing Body from time to time may think fit. Provided that the moneys so divided 1891 shall not in any year exceed the sum of five thousand two hundred and fifty pounds.

1897 “If in any year the moneys available for dividend shall not amount to three thousand pounds, it shall be lawful for the Governing Body, if two-thirds of them agree to do so, to suspend the election to one Fellowship, and if in any year the moneys available for dividend shall not amount to two thousand five hundred pounds, it shall be lawful for the Governing Body, if two-thirds of them agree to do so, to suspend the election to another Fellowship in addition to the aforesaid, and if in any year the moneys available for dividend shall not amount to two thousand pounds, it shall be lawful for the Governing Body, if two-thirds of them agree to do so, to suspend the election to another Fellowship in addition to the two aforesaid. The said three or fewer Fellowships shall thereupon be kept vacant, unless a majority of the Governing Body shall at any time resolve to fill up one or more of them by the election of a Fellow or Fellows, or unless two-thirds at least of the Governing Body shall assign one of them or a moiety of one of them as a pension to a retiring College Officer. The annual income arising from the said vacant Fellowship or Fellowships shall be appropriated to increase by equal amounts each of the remaining dividends, namely those assigned to the President, the Fellows, the Scholarship Fund, the Education and Building Funds or towards the contribution to the University. Provided always that if after the Governing Body have ordered the election to one or two or three Fellowships to be suspended for the reasons aforesaid, the revenue of the College shall so increase that in any year the moneys divided shall exceed three thousand pounds but not exceed three thousand five hundred pounds, not more than two of the said Fellowships shall be applied to increase the remaining dividends, and if in any year the moneys divided shall exceed three thousand five hundred pounds but not exceed four thousand pounds, not more than one of the said Fellowships shall be applied to increase the remaining dividends; and if in any year the moneys divided shall exceed four thousand pounds, no Fellowship shall be applied to increase the remaining dividends.

“And when one or more Fellowships, the annual income whereof has been appropriated, as aforesaid, to increase the remaining dividends, may, by reason of the increase in the revenue of the College, be no longer applied to that purpose, the President shall at the next General College Meeting announce the said Fellowship or Fellowships to be vacant and the Governing Body shall proceed according to the provisions of Statute X section 2 as amended by the Governing Body and approved by Her Majesty in Council on the sixteenth May, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-three.

“Fellows whose tenure is governed by Statutes previous to one thousand eight hundred and eighty-two shall have an equal share with the other Fellows in the annual income arising from the said suspended Fellowship or Fellowships.”

If at any time it shall appear to the Governing Body that the Revenue of the College is greater than the amount required to afford to each Fellow a dividend of 1891 two hundred and fifty pounds a year (exclusive of rooms, commons, and residence money, but inclusive of all other allowances), they may apply the surplus for the purpose of increasing the Building Fund, the Scholarship Fund, or the Education Fund, or they may submit to the Visitor a scheme, approved by the majority of the whole Governing Body, for increasing the number of Fellowships or Scholarships or Exhibitions, or for providing a fund for granting gratuities to poor and deserving members of the College in statu pupillari, or for applying the surplus in some other way for the benefit of the College or of the University, and the said scheme, if approved by the Visitor, shall thenceforth have the same force and effect as if it formed part of these Statutes. The Visitor shall not be authorised at any time to approve any scheme for diminishing the number of Fellowships or Scholarships below the minimum number prescribed in these Statutes.

19. Of the Publication of Accounts.

An abstract of the several accounts of the College relating to funds administered either for general purposes or in trust, or otherwise, shall be sent on or before the thirty-first day of December in each year to the Vice-Chancellor of the University for publication. The abstract shall be made as nearly as practicable in the form contained in the Schedule attached to these Statutes. The accounts of receipts and expenditure of moneys (if any) raised under the borrowing powers of the College shall be sent annually at the same time to the Vice-Chancellor of the University for publication.

20. Of Contribution to the University.

The College shall pay annually to the University the sum authorised to be levied from the College by the Statutes of the University made under the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act, 1877.

The Governing Body shall have power to suspend the election to one Fellowship if they think fit, and to appropriate the annual income towards the contribution to the University, so long as the dividend of a Fellow shall be less than two hundred pounds a year.

21. Of the Bursars, Dean, Steward, Prælector, and Librarian.

The Governing Body shall elect annually, in the month of October, two Bursars, a Dean, a Steward, a Prælector, and a Librarian, who shall hold their offices for one year from their election, and shall be eligible for re-election. The Dean shall be in Holy Orders.

The Senior Bursar shall receive and pay all moneys due to and owing by the College, and shall keep an account thereof, and shall present the same for audit, by the President and two Senior Fellows then in Cambridge, in such form and at such times as may be determined by College Order, and shall discharge such other duties as may from time to time be imposed on him by College Order.

The moneys of the College received by the Senior Bursar on account of the College shall be kept in some bank or banks approved by the Governing Body, or shall be invested in such manner as shall be determined by College Order.

The Junior Bursar in the absence or illness of the Senior Bursar shall act in his stead, and shall discharge such other duties as may from time to time be imposed on him by College Order.

The Dean shall provide for the celebration of Divine Service in the College Chapel, according to such College Orders as may from time to time be made, and shall discharge such other duties as may from time to time be imposed on him by College Order.

The Steward shall have the superintendence of the Buttery and the Kitchen, according to such College Orders as may from time to time be made, and shall discharge such other duties as may from time to time be imposed on him by College Order.

The Prælector shall present candidates for Degrees in the Senate House, and shall discharge such other duties as may from time to time be imposed on him by College Order.

The Librarian shall have the charge of the books in the College Library, according to such College Orders as may from time to time be made, and shall discharge such other duties as may from time to time be imposed on him by College Order.

Each of the aforesaid Officers shall receive such stipend as may be fixed from time to time by College Order.

22. Of the Tutors and Lecturers.

No Undergraduate member of the College, and no Bachelor, except a Fellow, shall be without a Tutor.

The number of Tutors and Lecturers shall be from time to time determined by the Governing Body.

Each Tutor shall be nominated by the President, and the persons so nominated shall be submitted to the Governing Body for election to the Office of Tutor for a probationary period of three years, and on the expiration of such period the Governing Body shall have power to confirm the Tutor so elected in his Office.

The Assistant Tutors and Lecturers shall be nominated by the President. The persons so nominated shall be submitted to the Governing Body for election, and shall hold office for such periods as the Governing Body may determine.

The President shall be eligible for any of the above-mentioned educational offices.

23. Of Tuition Fees and the Caution Fund.

The Governing Body shall from time to time fix the Tuition Fees to be paid by the Students of the College, and determine in what proportions the aggregate sum received shall be distributed among the Tutors and other members of the Educational Staff.

All Caution money, and also all moneys due to the College from any of its members, shall (save when otherwise provided by these Statutes) be received and collected by some officer or officers appointed by the Governing Body to receive the same.

All Caution money shall be placed to the credit of a fund to be called the Caution Fund.

The Caution Fund shall be managed and the income therefrom applied in such manner as the Governing Body shall from time to time direct. The accounts of this fund shall be kept by such officer as the Governing Body may appoint for the purpose, and shall be annually audited with the other College accounts.

24. Of the Discipline of the College.

If any member of the College in statu pupillari neglect his studies or commit a breach of the discipline of the College, the Governing Body may inflict upon him such punishment as the offence may appear to them to deserve. If the offender be a Scholar of the College, the Governing Body may order his stipend to be forfeited, or payment thereof to be suspended for such time as they may think fit, or may deprive him of his Scholarship. In the case of what they deem the grave misconduct of any member of the College in statu pupillari they may expel him from the College.

For the purpose of this Statute the Governing Body may depute their powers to the President, Tutors, and Dean for the time being.

25. Of the Common Seal.

The Common Seal shall be kept in some secure place in the President's Lodge, and shall not be removed therefrom, unless at any time a majority of the members of the Governing Body then in Cambridge think fit.

Nothing shall go forth under the Common Seal except in pursuance of a College Order made by a majority of the members of the Governing Body then in Cambridge, and after entry in a book kept for the purpose ; nor shall the seal be affixed to any document except in the presence of three members at least of the Governing Body.

26. Of the Property of the College.

The Charters and other muniments of the College shall be kept in the accustomed place in the Tower, the keys whereof shall be kept by the President and the Senior Bursar ; and none of them shall be taken thence unless at any time a majority of the members of the Governing Body then in Cambridge direct.

The lands and all other property whatsoever of the College shall be inspected at such times and by such persons as the Governing Body shall determine.

There shall be kept in the Tower and in the President's Lodge inventories of the Plate belonging to the College, whether the same be in the College Buttery or in the President's Lodge ; and there shall be an audit of the said plate once a year, at a time to be fixed by College Order, by the President, Senior Bursar, and Steward, or any two of them.

No article of plate shall be disposed of, or in any way changed, without the consent of every member of the Governing Body.

27. Of Divine Service and Religious Instruction.

The Governing Body shall elect annually a Priest of the Church of England as Chaplain, who shall say morning and evening prayer, according to the order of the Book of Common Prayer, daily as heretofore in the Chapel of the College, subject to the provisions contained in the sixth section of the Universities Tests Act, 1871.

Such Chaplain shall discharge such other duties as may from time to time be imposed on him by College Order, and shall receive such annual stipend as may be assigned to him from College moneys by College Order.

The Governing Body shall elect annually a Priest of the Church of England as Catechist, who shall give religious instruction to all members of the College in statu pupillari belonging to the Established Church, according to the provisions of the fifth section of the Universities Tests Act, 1871. Such Catechist shall discharge such other duties as may from time to time be imposed on him by College Order, and shall receive such annual stipend as may be assigned to him from College moneys by College Order.

The Governing Body may provide that the annual stipends of the Chaplain and Catechist, to be paid from College moneys, shall be paid from the interest of 1893 moneys invested in the public funds "or in first debenture securities of any of the principal railways in the United Kingdom or in the purchase of land in Great Britain," obtained by the College from the sale of one or more of its advowsons.

The President, a Tutor, or other Officer of the College shall be eligible for the offices of Chaplain and Catechist, which may be held by the same person at the same time.

28. Of the Sale of Advowsons.

The moneys realised from the sale of Advowsons shall not be applied to any other than theological purposes.

29. Of the Commemoration of Benefactors.

On the Sunday next after the division of the Michaelmas Term there shall be in the Chapel a Commemoration of the Benefactors of the College, according to the following form :

A Psalm or Hymn shall be sung, after which the Lord's Prayer shall be said.

Then shall be said or sung the 148th, the 149th, and the 150th Psalms. Then shall be read the 44th chapter of Ecclesiasticus ; after which a sermon shall be preached by the President or by some person appointed by him, at the close of which the preacher shall recite the names of the chief Benefactors of the College.

When the recitation of the names of the Benefactors is finished the "Te Deum" shall be sung in English.

Finally shall be said :

V. The memory of the Righteous shall remain for evermore.

R. And they shall not be afraid of any evil report.

V. The souls of the Righteous are in the hands of God.

R. And there shall no torment touch them.

V. The Lord be with you.

R. And with thy spirit.

Let us pray.

O Lord, we glorify thee in these thy servants our benefactors departed out of this present life, beseeching thee that, as they for their time bestowed charitably for our comfort the temporal things which thou didst give them, so we for our time may fruitfully use the same to the setting forth of thy holy word, thy laud, and praise, and finally that with those who have departed this life in thy faith and fear, we may be partakers of Thy Heavenly Kingdom, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

30. Of Change in the Value of Money.

No alteration in the specific sum mentioned in these Statutes shall be made in consequence of any change in the value of money, or for any other reason except by Statute made in accordance with the provisions of the fifty-fourth and fifty-fifth sections of the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act, 1877.

31. Of the Interpretation of the Statutes.

If any doubt shall arise with respect to the intent and meaning of any of these Statutes, the Governing Body shall declare by College Order the true intent and meaning thereof; provided that any one concerned in such intent and meaning may appeal to the Visitor.

32. Of Appeals to the Visitor.

In all causes, questions, or disputes arising out of these Statutes there shall be an appeal to the Visitor. The appeal shall be by way of petition. The Lord Chancellor may, in giving his decision, make such order with respect to costs as he shall think fit.

33. Of the Preservation of Existing Interests.

The interests and conditions of tenure of emoluments of such of the President and Foundation Fellows as were 1893 elected before the first day of October 1892 shall be regulated by the Statutes under which they hold; and the interests and conditions of tenure of emoluments of the Edwards' Fellow elected before the said first day of 1893 October 1892 shall be regulated by the previously existing custom of the College; provided that if any such President or Foundation Fellow as aforesaid shall, within one year from the approval of these Statutes by the Queen in Council, elect to be placed under the operation of the present Statutes, it shall be lawful for him to signify such election to the Governing Body by a notice in writing under his hand, addressed to the President and Fellows, which notice shall be laid before the first College meeting which shall be held after the receipt of such notice, and shall be entered in the conclusion book of the College; and thereupon the interests and conditions of tenure of emolument of any such President or Foundation Fellow so giving such notice shall from the date of such notice be governed by the present Statutes, and shall accordingly be the same as if these Statutes had been in operation at the date of his election to such emolument, and his past services in any of the College offices named in Statute 14 shall be reckoned as services under these Statutes.

34. Of the Repeal of former Statutes.

From and after the time when these Statutes shall take effect, none of the Statutes of the College in force before that time shall be of any force and effect, save and except in so far as they relate to the interests and conditions of tenure of emolument of any person who before the fourteenth day of March 1878 was elected or appointed to an emolument within the meaning of the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act, 1877, but this repeal shall not be taken to revive any provisions repealed by such former Statutes.

SCHEDULE.

ABSTRACT OF RECEIPTS AND DISBURSEMENTS brought to account in the year .

A.—CORPORATE INCOME.

RECEIPTS.

1.—External.

Lands on Beneficial Leases	-	-	-	-	-	-
„ at Rack Rent	-	-	-	-	-	-
Houses on Beneficial Leases	-	-	-	-	-	-
„ on long leases	-	-	-	-	-	-
„ at Rack Rent	-	-	-	-	-	-
Copyholds for lives	-	-	-	-	-	-
„ of inheritance	-	-	-	-	-	-
Leases for lives	-	-	-	-	-	-
„ for terms of years	-	-	-	-	-	-
Tithe Rentcharges	-	-	-	-	-	-
Other Rentcharges	-	-	-	-	-	-
Underwoods	-	-	-	-	-	-
Timber	-	-	-	-	-	-
Minerals	-	-	-	-	-	-
Stocks, Shares, &c.	-	-	-	-	-	-
Other Properties	-	-	-	-	-	-

2.—Internal.

Rents of rooms	-	-	-	-	-	-
Entrance Fees	-	-	-	-	-	-
Graduation Fees	-	-	-	-	-	-
Annual dues of Residents	-	-	-	-	-	-
„ „ of Non-Residents	-	-	-	-	-	-
Profits in Kitchen, Buttery, &c.	-	-	-	-	-	-
Other sources	-	-	-	-	-	-

DISBURSEMENTS.

Rates, Taxes, and Insurance on College Buildings	-	-	-	-	-	-	-
" " " " on Estates	-	-	-	-	-	-	-
Repairs and Improvements on College Buildings	-	-	-	-	-	-	-
" " " on Estates	-	-	-	-	-	-	-
Management of Estates	-	-	-	-	-	-	-
Contribution for University purposes	-	-	-	-	-	-	-
The Head and Fellows	-	-	-	-	-	-	-
Scholars and Exhibitioners	-	-	-	-	-	-	-
Allowances to Residents	-	-	-	-	-	-	-
University Professors	-	-	-	-	-	-	-
Tutorial Fund	-	-	-	-	-	-	-
Examiners and Prizes	-	-	-	-	-	-	-
College Officers	-	-	-	-	-	-	-
College Servants	-	-	-	-	-	-	-
Chapel and Chapel Services	-	-	-	-	-	-	-
Library	-	-	-	-	-	-	-
Subscriptions, Pensions, &c.	-	-	-	-	-	-	-
Maintenance of Establishment in College	-	-	-	-	-	-	-
Augmentation of Benefices	-	-	-	-	-	-	-
Interest on Loans and Repayments	-	-	-	-	-	-	-
Investments	-	-	-	-	-	-	-

£ s. d.

Balance at commencement of Account

Total Receipts - - - - -

£ s. d.

Total Expenditure - - - - -

Balance in hand - - - - -

B.—TRUST FUNDS.

1. Funds applicable wholly or in part to purposes within the College.

RECEIPTS.

DISBURSEMENTS.

2. Funds applicable wholly to purposes outside the College.

RECEIPTS.

DISBURSEMENTS.

C.—TUITION FUND.

RECEIPTS.

DISBURSEMENTS.

D.—CAUTION FUND.

RECEIPTS.

DISBURSEMENTS.

E.—SCHOLARSHIP FUND.

RECEIPTS.

DISBURSEMENTS.