

PRESS RELEASE

Fifth Queens' Distinguished Lecture in Law

Redress Solutions Prizes for Academic Excellence

Redress Solutions LL.M Studentship

Redress Solutions PLC and Queens' College, University of Cambridge are delighted to host the fifth Queens' Distinguished Lecture in Law which will be held at Queens' College on the 17thth October 2019. It will be delivered by The Rt. Hon. Lord Justice Newey, Lord Justice of Appeal and Queens' College Alumnus. He will be speaking on "What does it mean? Some thoughts on interpretation". The Queens' Distinguished Law Lecture is an annual event which exposes members of the College and distinguished guests to the most advanced thinking on the law. In conjunction with the lecture, Redress Solutions PLC is sponsoring several prizes and a studentship for meritorious graduate and undergraduate students to be awarded by the Director of Studies in Law at Queens'. These include the Redress Solutions Prize for academic excellence in Law and the Redress Solutions Studentship for LL.M students which will be presented by Lord Justice Newey on the day.

Arthur Armitage Fellow in Law at Queens' College and former Chair of the Faculty of Law at the University of Cambridge, Professor Richard Fentiman, said: 'We are delighted to welcome Sir Guy Newey back to Queens' for the latest in this important series of lectures. It is especially fitting that so distinguished a Queens' lawyer should speak at an event which reinforces the College's commitment to excellence in legal education, a commitment which Redress Solutions does so much to support'.

Marius Nasta LL.M, Chief Executive of Redress Solutions PLC and an alumnus of Queens' College said: "This year marks the fifth anniversary of the Queens' Distinguished Lecture in Law. The inaugural lecture was given by Lady Hale, the President of the UK Supreme Court, and was hugely successful. In her footsteps followed Lord Grabiner, Lord Falconer and Canada's former Chief Justice, the Rt. Hon. Beverley McLachlin, all of whom delivered equally brilliant lectures. Redress sponsors several prizes and an LL.M Studentship which were awarded on the recommendation of Professor Fentiman to talented and hardworking students. I very much look forward to Lord Justice Newey's lecture and to continuing to support the growth and the development of the Law teaching programme at Queens'".

Note to Editors

About Queens' College, University of Cambridge: one of the oldest, largest and most famous of Cambridge colleges, Queens' provides a world-class, research-led education for almost 1,000 students. It aims to attract the best and brightest scholars globally, irrespective of background. Its reputation for excellence in Law has been based most recently on luminaries such as Sir Arthur Armitage, Sir Derek Bowett and Professor John Tiley.

About Redress Solutions PLC: Redress Solutions PLC is a leading investor in legal claims based in London and a member of the Association of Litigation Funders of England and Wales. Marius Nasta delivered lectures to the LL.M and civil procedure class at the Cambridge Law Faculty on litigation funding. He himself studied for the LLM at Queens' College in the early 1990s.

Contacts:

At Queens' College:

For Queens' College development: Mr Rowan Kitt, Development Director & Fellow

email: development.director@queens.cam.ac.uk

website: www.queens.cam.ac.uk

At Redress Solutions PLC:

Mr Marius Nasta, Chief Executive;

tel: 0207 4953900;

email: mnasta@redressolutions.co.uk;

website: www.redressolutions.co.uk