

QUEENS' COLLEGE CHAPEL • LENT TERM 2020
SUNDAY SCHOOL

Choral Evensong 'Sunday School'

Choral Evensong

Sundays

6.00PM

Choral Evensong is our main service of the week. It combines the beautiful literature of the Book of Common Prayer and the King James Bible with ancient and modern music and hymns sung by the Chapel Choir and the congregation. Everyone is warmly invited to stay for drinks in the Antechapel after the service.

Are five days of lectures just not enough for you? Do you crave ten minutes of witty, profound instruction on a Sunday afternoon? Then we have good news! This term we will be reliving Sunday School. Come along as we explore the classic Sunday School stories to see if they can bear any significance for our lives today.

Welcome to Chapel

The Chapel is a place of Christian Worship, but is here for all members of the College no matter what they believe. We hope that you feel welcome here whether you come frequently or just want to drop in occasionally. The Chapel aims to be an inclusive place where diversity is respected, embraced, and encouraged. It should also be a place where we are challenged to confront some bigger questions about life, and so be a place of learning, prayer, and community. We'd love to see you at any of our services!

The Dean of Chapel, The Rev'd Tim Harling (tch42) is available to students, staff and fellows throughout the year. Do feel free to drop in and see him to talk about anything - big or small - in a confidential, supportive and inclusive environment. He can be found in his room (Cloister 2, Cloister Court), in Chapel or by email.

The Chaplain, The Rev'd Max Bayliss (mtb52) is available to offer support to all members of Queens'. He is responsible for the day to day life of the Chapel and Choir, and is happy to listen and chat confidentially about anything, religious or not. You can find him in FF8.

College Catechist Dr Elizabeth Powell, Divinity Faculty and Durham University based in Cambridge.

Fellow Commoner advising in music Mr Ralph Allwood works with the Organ Scholars to ensure continuity in delivery of music to the highest standard now and in training musicians and choristers for the future.

Aliki Vatikioti Senior Organ Scholar Mr Robin Pillinger
