

Friends of Queens' Music

Since the Foundation of Queens' College in 1448, music has been integral to the life of the College. Old Hall includes a Minstrel Gallery, the original College Chapel—now the War Memorial Library—featured an Organ, and as the fabric of Queens' grew and developed, so did the College's commitment to providing a rich cultural environment for all.

This history cannot be told without also celebrating the legacy of philanthropy. From Richard III's greatest benefaction to modern day refurbishments of the Chapel Organ and Musical Scholarships, philanthropy has been central to the success and development of the College for over 500 years.

The Friends of Queens' Music seeks to continue this great tradition as creative and artistic pursuits face increasingly challenging funding scenarios, and so our members are helping to safeguard treasured institutions like MagSoc (the St Margaret Society, the largest musical society in the University of Cambridge) and the Queens' Chapel Choir for future generations of students, while also helping to establish new groups and traditions.

How you can help...

An annual membership to the FOQM provides vital and sustainable funding for musical activities at Queens', from music lessons for individual students, to record production for the College choirs and orchestras.

I would like to join Friends of Queens' Music for the current academic year.

Gift Aid Declaration:

As a Registered Charity (no. 1137495), Queens' College can reclaim basic rate tax on all gifts, provided that you have paid an amount of UK Income Tax or Capital Gains Tax equal to the tax we reclaim. This means that every £10 donated is worth £12.50; the extra is paid by the Inland Revenue, at no cost to you. This excludes the cash value of "benefits" received for membership subscriptions. If you pay Tax at the higher rate, then you can reclaim further Tax Relief on your self-assessment Tax Return.

I would like Queens' College to treat all donations that I have made since 6 April 2000, and all donations I make from the date of this declaration, until I notify you otherwise, as Gift Aid donations.

The Friends of Queens' Music Society is just one of the ways in which the College is working to ensure that our students enjoy a rounded, varied, and stimulating environment as they undertake their studies. Research continues to demonstrate how important artistic and physical pursuits are in maintaining a healthy and balanced lifestyle, and how such activities can also improve academic performance.

If you would like to learn more about how you can support similar projects within the College for sport, music, performance and other extra-curricular activities, please contact the Development Office.
