Celebrating recent acquisitions to Queens' College Old Library's T.H. White Archive

“There were thousands of brown books in leather bindings, some chained to the book-shelves and others propped against each other as if they had had too much to drink and did not really trust themselves. These gave out a smell of must and solid brownness which was most secure.”

*– The Once and Future
King*

By T.H. White (1906-1964), Arthurian author and Queens' alumnus

*Exhibit on display until the end of
